

Retrival Test

1. Identify one duty of British Citizens:

2. Identify one British law which improved people's right to equal treatment:

3. In which year was the first Race Relations Act passed? _____

4. What percentage of the UK population lives in England? _____

5. What percentage of the UK population identify themselves as Christian? _____

6. Which word describes the movement of people to the UK? _____

7. Identify one national symbol associated with the UK. _____

8. Explain what 'Windrush Generation' is:

9. Identify one reason for people to move to the UK:

10. Identify one reason for people to emigrate from the UK:

11. Define the term 'multiculturalism':

12. Identify one way David Cameron tried to improve multicultural communities:

13. Identify one 'protected characteristic' under the Equality Act 2010:

14. Identify one example of a global identity:

15. Explain the difference between 'old' and 'new' media:

15. Explain the most important role of the media for a democracy:

16. Give one example of how the media has held people in power to account:

17. Give one example of how the media has committed misconduct in the past:

18. Explain the difference between IPSO and IMPRESS:

19. Identify the role of Ofcom:

20. What does the abbreviation 'UN' stand for? _____

21. What does the abbreviation 'NATO' stand for? _____

22. What does the abbreviation 'EU' stand for? _____

23. What does the abbreviation 'WTO' stand for? _____

24. Explain what the Commonwealth is and its purpose:

25. Explain one reason people might have voted to leave the EU:

26. Explain one reason people might have voted to remain in the EU:

27. Explain the term 'mediation' in terms of foreign relations:

28. Explain the term 'sanctions' in terms of foreign relations:

29. Explain the term 'use of force' in terms of foreign relations:

30. Considering a range of viewpoints, examine the arguments in favour and opposed to the opinion that the UK spends too much on foreign aid.

[8 marks]

(Do this in you book)